Armanino Consulting Partner Scot Glover to Present
At SF ISACA Fall Conference of IT

SAN RAMON, CALIF., October 20, 2011 — Armanino Consulting (www.amllp.com/consulting) today announced that Scot Glover will be a presenter at the 2011 Fall Conference of SF ISACA (Information Systems Audit and Control Association). Now in its 11th year, the SF ISACA Fall Conference continues to be the premier education event for hundreds of information technology audit, security, and governance, risk and compliance professionals in Northern California. Armanino Consulting is a sponsor of this popular educational event, the theme of which is “Back to Business.”

This year’s keynote speaker is Greg Shaffer, Assistant Secretary from the Office of Cybersecurity of the Department of Homeland Security. With five tracks of educational sessions, CEOs, CIOs and CFOs learn information critical to protecting the security of their information systems. Attendees can also earn up to 21.5 CPE (continuing professional education) credits over the three-day conference.

Armanino Consulting’s Glover will present “Adding Value through Integrated Audits” during the Professional Strategies track on Monday, November 7th from 3-4:30 p.m. His presentation will emphasize the value of cross training and a cross-functional approach to financial, operational and information systems auditing.

“Armanino Consulting is proud to be a sponsor of this annual ISACA event that brings together the leading corporations in Northern California,” said Glover, partner-in-charge of governance, risk and compliance services at Armanino Consulting. “The networking and learning opportunities are phenomenal, and I look forward to sharing my industry expertise with the attendees.”
